

Final LRP Bulletin – Thank you and Farewell

The Learning Research Programme led by the Centre for Capacity Research has worked alongside the DELTA Africa consortia to produce research-based learnings about how to train and develop world-class researchers, foster their careers and collaborations, and promote research uptake. In this final edition of the LRP bulletin, we present a summary of the LRP resources produced by the LRP team – Dr Pierre Abomo, Dr Abiola Aiyenigba, Ms Millicent Liani, Ms Violet Murunga, and Ms Nadia Tagoe. On a personal note, I would like to extend my thanks to everyone who has contributed to this valuable research, and I hope the findings have been useful. Please stay in touch as there is more LRP research yet to be published, all of which will be available via our webpage.

Best wishes Justin

DELTA LRP Dissemination Meeting

Join us on Tuesday 9th March 2021 for the virtual LRP dissemination meeting which will feature presentations from each of the LRP themes. In addition, a panel discussion will be facilitated by Prof Imelda Bates titled “Key lessons for funding, implementing and evaluating research capacity strengthening consortia”. Following the panel discussion, the LRP team will remain online for an informal ‘lunch forum’ with any audience members who wish to remain and discuss the study findings/applications in more detail. Follow the link to register and do share with colleagues.

DELTAS Resources

During the summer of 2020, despite the Covid-19 lockdown, the DELTAS LRP PhD themes each produced a short film of their research findings and key messages. In addition, an overarching film was produced explaining the DELTAS LRP programme. The films can be viewed via the LRP project homepage: www.lstmed.ac.uk/ccr

“ The LRP not only supports the implementation of the DELTAS Africa programme, but is producing reliable evidence published in peer-reviewed academic journals that other research capacity strengthening programmes can draw on in the future. ”

All previous editions of the LRP bulletins, learning reports, journal papers and other DELTAS LRP documentation are available on the Centre for Capacity Research website www.lstmed.ac.uk/ccr.

Publications

To date, three papers have been published by the LRP research themes with nine papers still in development (revisit our website for updates in 2021):

- Tagoe N, Molyneux S, Pulford J, Murunga V and Kinyanjui S (2019) 'Managing health research capacity strengthening consortia: A systematized review of the published literature'. BMJ Global Health, Vol 4, e001318.
- Murunga V, Oronje R, Bates I, Tagoe N and Pulford J (2020) 'Review of published evidence on knowledge translation capacity, practice and support among researchers and research institutions in low- and middle-income countries'. Health Research Policy and Systems, Vol 18, e16.
- Liani M, Nyamongo IK and Tolhurst R (2020) 'Towards an integrated conceptual framework for understanding intersecting gender inequities in academic scientific research career progression in higher education institutions in sub-Saharan Africa'. International Journal of Gender Science and Technology, Vol 12, Issue (2), pp. 262-288.
